

THE LUXURY
COLLECTION

FACT SHEET

Since 1901, Cristallo, a Luxury Collection Resort & Spa, Cortina d'Ampezzo has been nestled in the spectacular Dolomites mountain range (a UNESCO World Heritage site). Owned and managed by the Gualandi family, the iconic hotel has a storied history that includes hosting the winter Olympics, Hollywood film crews and celebrities such as Frank Sinatra. The dual-season property is one of Italy's most sought after destinations for skiing, golfing, wellness getaways and epicurean experiences. Boasting majestic views across the town of Cortina d'Ampezzo and the Dolomites, the hotel's 74 guestrooms, including 20 suites and two Presidential suites, have been distinctively furnished to complement the property's Italian heritage. Guests can also enjoy a choice of diverse Italian cuisine at the hotel's four restaurants. The spectacular 1600 sq. meter spa (5200 sq. ft.), Cristallo ULTIMATE SPA, focuses on exclusive locally sourced therapeutic treatments from Transvital Swiss Beauty Center, and also includes a spacious FitWell Club. In June 2017, the resort joined The Luxury Collection, the world's premier portfolio of upscale destinations. As the newest member in The Luxury Collection, and the brand's only ski resort worldwide, Cristallo will continue to surround its guests in extraordinary period details like pendant chandeliers and hand-painted wall "frescos," while expanding on its modern-day amenities to provide a truly luxurious guest experience.

RESTAURANTS

Guests of the Cristallo can enjoy a selection of restaurants and dining experiences, each of which focuses on quality, elegant Italian cuisine. Alongside seasonal tasting menus featuring dishes from the region, guests can choose from a variety of cuisines throughout the Cristallo's portfolio of four restaurants: Il Gazebo, La Stube 1872, La Veranda del Cristallo (chef's private table).

LA STUBE 1872: Dedicated entirely to serving traditional local food from the Veneto region, La Stube offers the perfect opportunity to taste authentic Ampezzani cuisine, such as fresh ravioli stuffed with pumpkin, local trout, and cheese or chocolate fondue.

IL GAZEBO: For a truly luxurious experience, dine overlooking spectacular views of the Tofane Mountains in the glass-enclosed setting of Il Gazebo. Seats 80 people.

LA VERANDA: The extremely popular gastronomic dishes at the Hotel Cristallo's La Veranda Restaurant take the traditional flavours of the region to new heights, from the Alps to the Sea. Seats 80 people.

CHEF'S PRIVATE TABLE: An intimate setting offering an exclusive gourmet experience for true gourmands. Patrons enjoy tasting menus and wine pairings presented by the Chef. Recommended for private dinners with a maximum of 12 guests.
